

Life with the Wright Family.

Directions: Here is a simple yet fun teambuilder. Grab any object, an answerboard is perfect (make sure there are no sharp edges or corners). Stand facing your teammates. Every time you hear the word 'right' pass your object one teammate to your right, everytime you hear the word 'left' pass your object to the teammate on your left, when you hear the word 'across' pass your object to your partner who is 'kitty-corner' (diagonally opposite) to you. Have fun re-writing your own version of the 'Wright Family'; be sure to include more silly commands to follow and have fun!

One day the Wright family decided to take a holiday. The first thing they had to decide was who would be left at home since there was not enough room in the Wright family car for all of them. Mr Wright decided that Aunt Linda Wright would be the one left at home. Of course this made Aunt Linda Wright so mad that she ran across the garden immediately yelling, "It will be a right cold day before I return."

The Wright family now gathered up the children, Tommy Wright, Susan Wright, Timmy Wright, and Shelley Wright and got in the car and left. Unfortunately, as they turned out of the driveway someone had left a bicycle across the street so they had to turn right around and stop the car. They told Timmy Wright to get out of the car and move the bicycle so they could get going. Timmy Wright took so long to go across the street they almost left him right there. Once the Wright family got on the road, Mother Wright wondered if she had left the stove on. Father Wright told her not to worry since he had checked the stove and she had not left it on. As they turned right at the corner, everyone started to think about other things that the Wright family might have left undone.

No need to worry now, they were going across country on a right fine holiday. When they arrived at the petrol station, Father Wright put petrol in the car and then discovered that he had left his wallet at home. So Timmy Wright ran right back home to get the money that was left behind. After Timmy ran across the road, Susan Wright began to feel sick. She left the car saying that she had to throw up. This of course got Mother Wright's attention and she left the car in a hurry. Shelly Wright wanted to watch Susan get sick, so she left the car too. Father Wright was left with Tommy Wright who was playing a game in the backseat.

With all this going on, Father Wright decided that this was not the right time to take the Wright family holiday. So, he gathered up all of the Wright family and left the petrol station as quickly as he could. When he arrived at home, he turned left into the driveway and said, "I wish the Wright family had never left this house today!"
